

Make-A-Story Together Time

A Very Special Person

Help your child write a very special autobiography. Start with several sheets of blank paper and print an incomplete sentence at the bottom of each. Some examples include: The people in my family are _____. We live in a _____. I am happy when _____. My favorite thing to do with friends is _____. I am looking forward to _____. My favorite season is _____ because I like to _____.

Then, read the sentences aloud and print the words your child dictates to complete them. Over several days' time, have your child illustrate each page of the autobiography and draw a self-portrait for the cover. Staple the pages together to make a booklet.

Creative Conclusions

Read a simple story aloud, but stop before the end. Ask your child to predict the conclusion. Or, read familiar stories and have your child make up different endings. You can help by asking for a scary, funny, or surprising ending.
